AMERICAN FARM 85 MIN.

Times Cinema, 5906 West Vliet Street
FREE admission!

In this moving portrait of a vanishing way of life, documentary filmmaker James Spione explores the century-long struggle of his mother's family to maintain a small dairy farm near Cooperstown, New York. Spione chronicles the backbreaking work, agricultural innovation and determination in the face of tragedy that led to the success of the operation. At the same time,

American Farm reveals the profound shifts in attitude that have created the current crisis: no one in the next generation is willing to take over the farm. American Farm is both a powerful tribute to, and sober demystification of, one of America's most hallowed and least understood institutions.

The Isthmus Weekly - Madison, WI

"Spione has woven the various strands of his ancestral heritage into a rich tapestry, a portrait of a whole way of life... a wonderfully personal look at that great American institution, the family farm."

When we walk into a supermarket, we assume that we have the widest possible choice of healthy foods. But in fact, over the course of the 20th century, our food system has been co-opted by corporate forces whose interests do not lie in providing the public with fresh, healthy and sustainably produced food. In the late 1960s and early 1970s, groups of political anti-corporate protesters voiced their dissent by creating a food chain outside of the conventional system. The unintended result was the birth of a vital local-sustainable-organic food movement, which has brought back taste and variety to our tables. Features Milwaukee's own Will Allen of Growing Power!
